BC WINE — BORN IN KELOWNA

Did you know the BC wine industry was actually born in Kelowna in 1932? Once upon a time in 1931, a visionary named Giuseppe Ghezzi, along with the local Capozzi family, organized a group of investors to create what was later christened Calona Wines Ltd. What is now named Calona Vineyards, is actually BC's first-ever, original winery and is still open in downtown Kelowna.

As that brand manifested and expanded, and other wine labels were created across the valley, a small group of visionary winemakers, grape growers, and industry leaders came together in 1990 to create the BC VQA and BC Wine Institute (BCWI). Miles Prodan, President & CEO of the BC Wine Institute says "BC VQA wine would not be what it is today without the incredible vision, collaboration, and determination of our industry."

WELCOME TO KELOWNA WINE COUNTRY

Kelowna is smack in the middle of one of the world's most exciting wine regions, acclaimed for its crisp whites, complex reds, and a growing number of organic winemakers. The area is all about perfect pairings; BC's first vines were planted in Kelowna and it's also home to the province's oldest continually-operating winery Calona Vineyards (est. 1932). Travel past orchards and farms as you explore over 40 wineries. Add on spectacular lake and mountain views from many tasting rooms, and numerous winery bistros and restaurants that pair local, seasonal cuisine with their vintages, and you'll agree Kelowna offers a wine tourism experience second to none.

WINE TOURING TIPS

- Always have a designated driver.
- Many wineries now require a reservation. Check their website for detailed information.
- Bring photo identification.
- Be aware, winery staff may verify you are of drinking age (19+ in British Columbia).
- Contact winery restaurants to enquire about reservations.
- Share your pictures with #exploreKelowna.
- Know that many wineries charge a tasting fee which may be reimbursed upon wine purchase.
- The tasting room is an adult experience. If you choose to bring children, they must be accompanied at all times.

EXPLORE KELOWNA

The best way to explore Kelowna's wine routes is on a small-group tour. Many companies run regular tours that visit four to five designated wineries and can include lunch. Or, customize a tour and visit wineries on your bucket list. You can also travel country roads to vineyards in a classic car, cycle between tastings on an e-bike, or splash out on a helicopter wine tour. For a full list of guided wine tours visit tourismkelowna.com.

DON'T MISS A SIP

Check off each winery you visit to ensure you don't miss a sip as you explore the Kelowna Wine Trails (with a designated driver).
